

Regis Corporation is now hiring

With many brands and thousands of salons, we have superior marketing and unmatched operational expertise.

Career Development

Most of our managers started their careers as hairstylists. We have a strong career path for those interested in becoming a leader. You can evolve from a stylist to a manager, to a district leader, regional director or regional vice president. Or, you can pursue opportunities to become a leader in technical education and training. Your success is limitless.

Our Benefits

- Competitive hourly wage.
- Paid vacation.
- Ongoing professional development through personal education and video training.
- Investment Benefits Plans.
- Salons in busy areas with built-in guest traffic.

Technical Training

- Regis invests over $10.5 million in education every year.
- Our vendors invest over $3 million in our education every year.
- Last year we conducted 20,804 days of training.

Our Culture

We are a team of passionate haircare individuals focused on making a positive difference in people's lives one guest at a time. If you share our passion, join us.

We would love to interview you!
